Privacy Officer: Gregory Moreton

Introduction

Gregory Moreton is a self-employed Woodturner providing tuition, demonstrations, art and reproduction pieces on commission.

How we collect your information

We collect your information when you make an enquiry about services; either for a wood turning course, a demonstration or to commission work.

If you have attended a course or a demonstration you will be offered a feedback form for the Register of Professional Turners. Any Data you provide on that form will be shared with Gregory Moreton for the purpose of improving quality. The Register is compliant with the GDPR and a copy of its Privacy Notice can be seen on its website.

If you book a course through CraftCourses.com your contact data will be shared with Gregory Moreton for the purposes of arranging the course. CraftCourses.com are compliant with the GDPR. A copy of their privacy notice can be viewed on their website.

If you make contact through the Surrey Guild of Craftsman, or any other Gallery or organisation at which Gregory Moreton displays his work, your contact details will be passed on by them at your request only.

What do we do with it?

We use this information to enable you to take part in the activity you book or to make arrangements with you about a commission.

As the data is provided by you we process this data with your consent. However the data processing is also as required for the performance of a contract.

We hold your data for the duration of your agreement with us. After that time the data will be anonymised and held for historical record or for the compliance of a legal obligation only. You can contact us to change or delete your data at any time.

Who do we share it with?

Gregory Moreton will not sell your data to any third party. Your data will not be processed outside the EU. Your data is not shared with any third party.
